ECONOMIC REVIEW

Headline inflation clocked in at 5.61% YoY in Sep'25 compared to 6.93% in Sep'24 and 2.99% in Aug'25. Consequently, average inflation for 1QFY26 fell sharply to 4.22% from 9.19% in the same period last year. The moderation was supported by lower core inflation and declines in electricity and fuel prices, despite food-driven MoM pressures due to flood-related disruptions. Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) meeting held on September 15, 2025, the SBP kept the policy rate unchanged at 11%. On the external front, the current account posted a sequential deficit of USD 245mn in Aug'25, following a deficit of USD 254mn in Jul'25 and compared to USD 82mn in Aug'24, driven by higher import demand despite a 4% YoY rise in exports and 7% YoY growth in remittances. As of September, SBP's FX reserves stands at USD 14.4 bn. Total FX reserves stand at USD 19.8 bn. In the forex market, PKR appreciated slightly by 0.16% MoM, closing the month at PKR 281.32/USD mainly on the back of stable FX reserves and a contained current account position. Pakistan is expected to conclude a staff-level agreement for the second EFF review, enabling the disbursement of the next USD 1 billion tranche. However, the government may request a waiver or a downward revision of the FY26 FBR tax target, citing challenges in meeting 1QFY26 collection goals and the need for fiscal space to fund post-flood rehabilitation efforts estimated at PKR 50-80 billion.

Looking ahead, Pakistan's economic outlook will depend on successful IMF program reviews, steady external financing, stable oil prices, and the effective implementation of policy reforms. Sustained growth will also require sound fiscal management, political stability, controlled inflation, and a stable exchange rate.

INFLATION & SBP POLICY RATE TREND

MONEY MARKET REVIEW

With the SBP maintaining the policy rate, secondary market yields rose across all tenors during the week. The 3-month and 6-month yields increased to 11.01% and 10.99%, respectively, while the 1-year yield edged up to 11.02%. Yields on longer tenors also moved higher, with the 5-year yield reaching 11.48%. The 10-year yield, however, saw a slight decline, easing to 12.00%.

The government conducted three T-bill auctions during the month, with cut-off yields remaining unchanged for the 3-month, 6-month, and 12-month tenors at 10.85%, 10.85%, and 11.00%, respectively. However, the yield on the 1-month paper declined by 15bps to 10.75%. The government raised PKR 717bn, exceeding the target of PKR 575bn. In the fixed PIB auction, the government raised PKR 654.28bn against a target of PKR 400bn, with cut-off yields for the 2 and 3-year tenors increasing to 11.20% and 11.14%, while the 5-year, 10-year, and 15-year yields stood at 11.44%, 12.04%, and 12.38%, respectively. Additionally, the government raised PKR 36.74bn through two Floating PIB auctions with semi-annual coupons, PKR 75.1bn from fixed rate discounted Sukuks (GIS-FRD), PKR 113bn from Fixed Rental Rate Sukuks (GIS-FRR), and PKR 20.46bn from Variable Rental Rate Sukuks (GIS-VRR). Going forward, the SBP is expected to adopt a cautious approach as potential supply-side pressures from ongoing flood-related disruptions. As a result, we anticipate policy rates to remain unchanged for the remainder of FY26.

YIELD CURVE

EQUITY MARKET REVIEW

Pakistan's equity market ended September on a strong note, with the benchmark KSE-100 Index gaining 16,876 points (+11%) to close at 165,493. The rally was driven by progress on the PKR 1.2 trillion circular debt resolution plan, an improving external account outlook, continued liquidity inflows, and the signing of a Strategic Mutual Defence Agreement between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. Investor sentiment was further boosted by the arrival of the IMF mission for the second review under the Extended Fund Facility (EFF), with Pakistan likely to meet key performance targets.

The KSE-100's average daily volume during the month rose to 542.05mn shares, up from 305.81mn shares in previous month coupled with a surge in the average daily value traded rising by 19% to PKR 37.21bn from PKR 31.31 bn in August 2025.

Foreign investors continued to remain on the selling side with net selling of USD 57.31mn. On the domestic side, individuals took the charge with net buying of USD 34.04mn. Mutual funds, and banks followed the lead, buying securities worth USD 30.48mn and USD3.99mn respectively.

Overall market sentiment remains positive, with the momentum expected to perpetuate in following months, supported by improving investor confidence and strong liquidity. However, political uncertainty and flood-related risks may pose challenges, market remains attentive to upcoming IMF meetings that could influence the near-term economic outlook.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Pakistan's equity market ended September on a strong note, with the benchmark KSE-100 Index gaining 16,876 points (+11%) to close at 165,493. The rally was driven by progress on the PKR 1.2 trillion circular debt resolution plan, an improving external account outlook, continued liquidity inflows, and the signing of a Strategic Mutual Defense Agreement between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. Investor sentiment was further boosted by the arrival of the IMF mission for the second review under the Extended Fund Facility (EFF), with Pakistan likely to meet key performance targets.

The KSE-100's average daily volume during the month rose to 542.05mn shares, up from 305.81mn shares in previous month coupled with a surge in the average daily value traded rising by 19% to PKR 37.21bn from PKR 31.31 bn in August 2025.

Foreign investors continued to remain on the selling side with net selling of USD 57.31mn. On the domestic side, individuals took the charge with net buying of USD 34.04mn. Mutual funds, and banks followed the lead, buying securities worth USD 30.48mn and USD3.99mn respectively.

Overall market sentiment remains positive, with the momentum expected to perpetuate in following months, supported by improving investor confidence and strong liquidity. However, political uncertainty and flood-related risks may pose challenges, market remains attentive to upcoming IMF meetings that could influence the near-term economic outlook.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Pakistan's equity market ended September on a strong note, with the benchmark KSE-100 Index gaining 16,876 points (+11%) to close at 165,493. The rally was driven by progress on the PKR 1.2 trillion circular debt resolution plan, an improving external account outlook, continued liquidity inflows, and the signing of a Strategic Mutual Defense Agreement between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. Investor sentiment was further boosted by the arrival of the IMF mission for the second review under the Extended Fund Facility (EFF), with Pakistan likely to meet key performance targets.

The KSE-100's average daily volume during the month rose to 542.05mn shares, up from 305.81mn shares in previous month coupled with a surge in the average daily value traded rising by 19% to PKR 37.21bn from PKR 31.31 bn in August 2025.

Foreign investors continued to remain on the selling side with net selling of USD 57.31mn. On the domestic side, individuals took the charge with net buying of USD 34.04mn. Mutual funds, and banks followed the lead, buying securities worth USD 30.48mn and USD3.99mn respectively.

Overall market sentiment remains positive, with the momentum expected to perpetuate in following months, supported by improving investor confidence and strong liquidity. However, political uncertainty and flood-related risks may pose challenges, market remains attentive to upcoming IMF meetings that could influence the near-term economic outlook.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Pakistan's equity market ended September on a strong note, with the benchmark KSE-100 Index gaining 16,876 points (+11%) to close at 165,493. The rally was driven by progress on the PKR 1.2 trillion circular debt resolution plan, an improving external account outlook, continued liquidity inflows, and the signing of a Strategic Mutual Defense Agreement between Pakistan and Saudi Arabia. Investor sentiment was further boosted by the arrival of the IMF mission for the second review under the Extended Fund Facility (EFF), with Pakistan likely to meet key performance targets.

The KSE-100's average daily volume during the month rose to 542.05mn shares, up from 305.81mn shares in previous month coupled with a surge in the average daily value traded rising by 19% to PKR 37.21bn from PKR 31.31 bn in August 2025.

Foreign investors continued to remain on the selling side with net selling of USD 57.31mn. On the domestic side, individuals took the charge with net buying of USD 34.04mn. Mutual funds, and banks followed the lead, buying securities worth USD 30.48mn and USD3.99mn respectively.

Overall market sentiment remains positive, with the momentum expected to perpetuate in following months, supported by improving investor confidence and strong liquidity. However, political uncertainty and flood-related risks may pose challenges, market remains attentive to upcoming IMF meetings that could influence the near-term economic outlook.
